

THE DIVINELY APPOINTED MOTHERS

A Mother's Day tribute to the divine feminine among us who have not given birth, but have stood in the gap as Mothers to others. They give at various levels and intensity to a child or person or organization in need. Thank you for your unselfish contributions to the healing and well-being of your brothers and sisters in the spirit of how God cares and loves us all.

